HISTORICAL GUADALAJARA ROUTE

Guadalajara is the second larger city in Mexico, and it is recognized as the Mexico and South America eight best city to visit. Known as “The City of Roses” or “The Tapatia Pearl”, it is a city where modernity and a great legacy of traditions are mix armoniously.

The city offers to visitor a magnificent architectonical legacy, through its colonial buildings, also art and painting heritage, represented by the work of important muralist and artists from Jalisco such as Gerardo Suarez, Jacobo Galvez and Jose Clemente Orozco.

Besides, Guadalajara is considered the born city of Mariachi band, Tequila, Charrería and Folklore, these elements have given Mexico worldwide recognition.

We take visitor to know the most emblematic places from the “Tapatia Pearl”, its history, cultural richness to show them how tradition and modernity share the same place armoniously.

We'll walk historical downtown in order to know the different architecture styles, such as neoclassical, baroque and gothic with contemporary elements

Guadalajara

We find a sample of Guadalajara's amazing architecture at "Cabañas" Cultural Institute, declared World's Cultural Inheritance by UNESCO in 1996, and Jose Clemente Orozco's most recognized murals, or Degollado theatre, that is an iconic place for cultural events, both built at 19th Century, Regional Museum, Governor's Palace or Holly Mary's Asumption Cathedral Basilica besides the different squares decorated by local artists.

Walk through this route full of history, art, architecture and culture of one of the most important and beautiful cities in Mexico is, without a doubt, an unforgettable and worth living experience
