

Take a break in Baden-Baden

Culture and nature in the Black Forest: the Badischer Hof Hotel Baden-Baden

Baden-Baden spa and wellness resort

The superior 4-star Radisson Blu Badischer Hof hotel in Baden-Baden sits in a park in the centre of one of Europe's top spa destinations, and is a wonderful place of retreat. Its unique location in the centre of the health and spa resort, also known as a centre for the media, arts and its Festival Hall, draws city tourists to while away some time on the edge of the Black Forest. The city is bordered by seven nature reserves, six of them natural monuments, including the Geroldsau Waterfall and the Wolfsschlucht gorge.

Capuchin monastery meets a warm welcome

Despite undergoing modernisation and renovation in 2016, the hotel has retained the historical charm of its former life as a Capuchin monastery and a meeting place for 19th century nobility. Part of its classical architecture dates back to this era of elegance. 162 exquisitely furnished rooms and suites promise comfort and quality. The design takes inspiration from historical architecture, complemented by modern elements, so the style thus conveys a sense of generosity, individuality and luxury. From the balcony or terrace, guests have wonderful views over the city.

Holidays for all the family

As a high-class city hotel, the Badischer Hof Hotel Baden-Baden extends a warm welcome to its guests. The listed 'Säulenhalle' – a grand columned hall - is the beating heart of the hotel and the perfect meeting place for hotel guests and locals alike. During the day, the Säulenhalle is the place to relax and chat over a coffee. In the evenings, travellers from all over the world enjoy its laid-back atmosphere and delicious cocktails. With a pool, sauna and fitness studio, guests at the Badischer Hof Hotels in Baden-Baden can still stay fit when travelling. The pool and sauna facilities extend over some 800 m<sup>2</sup>.

A culinary delight

The Park restaurant at the Badischer Hof Hotel Baden-Baden guarantees upscale cuisine using regional products. The culinary focus is on a wide selection of exquisite seasonal dishes throughout the year. In addition to culinary indulgence, the restaurant and its terrace also create a unique ambience with views over the garden.

Sport and activities

The woodland surroundings are a paradise for a variety of sports in the heart of nature, including hiking, jogging and cycling. In the 19th century, the spa town became best known for its casino. Baden-Baden theatre provides the stage to a permanent company. The Baden-Baden Festspielhaus festival hall, created when the former city railway station was completely renovated, is Europe's second-largest concert hall and offers a diverse programme. The Kurhaus Baden-Baden holds regular concerts, balls and dance, children's and comedy events. The Kongresshaus on the Augustaplatz hosts trade fairs, conferences and events, including awarding of the German Media Prize.

Spa and wellness

Guests will experience pure relaxation in the exclusive wellness and spa complex. The Badischer Hof Hotel Baden-Baden is the only hotel with a thermal water connection, directly supplying the indoor and outdoor pool in the spacious wellness area with warm flowing water at up to 37°C. With a total area of 800 m<sup>2</sup>, the light and bright wellness area also offers you a heated sports pool, sauna, steam bath, sea climate cabin and fitness studio. Beauty and wellness treatments complete the service.

Weddings

Say "I do" in Baden-Baden. The Badischer Hof Hotel Baden-Baden, with its unique historical ambience, offers everything newlyweds could desire. Whether a romantic open-air wedding in the wonderful hotel park, a grand gala dinner, a party with finger food or a completely traditional wedding. The hotel's own wedding planner works to meet guests' individual wishes: warm candlelight, polished silver cutlery, white linen, the happy sound of glasses clinking and lovingly tied flower arrangements on the tables, coupled with the aroma of delicious dishes of food. The Badischer Hof Hotel Baden-Baden will also give the happy couple the gift of their wedding night in the hotel, including a free night's accommodation and a delicious breakfast buffet the following morning.

Events

The Badischer Hof Hotel Baden-Baden offers spacious facilities for up to 180 people for all your stylish corporate and private events. Five unique events spaces from 32 m<sup>2</sup> to 170 m<sup>2</sup>, with natural daylight, Wi-Fi internet access and modern conference technology are available for conferences, events and celebrations. The committed events team will provide support in every aspect of delivering a successful and unforgettable occasion.
