THE FULLERTON HOTEL AND FULLERTON BAY HOTEL IN SINGAPORE WELCOME HONG KONG TRAVELLERS WITH BUBBLY PACKAGES

Arrival champagne, limousine transfers and exquisite private dinners among the inclusions for Hong Kong guests at Singapore's iconic heritage hotel and its sleek contemporary waterfront sister property

Hong Kong, 27 April 2021 - The Fullerton Hotel Singapore's classic heritage hotel and its ultra-exclusive waterfront sister property The Fullerton Bay are ready to roll out the red carpet for Hong Kong visitors under the newly announced Hong Kong to Singapore travel bubble commencing 26 May 2021.

Gazetted as the Lion City's 71st National Monument in the year of the nation's Golden Jubilee, the magnificent Fullerton Building was built in 1928 and was once home to Singapore's General Post Office, the prestigious Singapore Club, the Ministry of Finance and several illustrious government departments, before being transformed into a stunning 400-room heritage hotel.

By the picturesque Marina Bay across the road is Andre Fu-designed The Fullerton Bay Hotel, an exclusive modern sanctuary completed built over the waters of Marina Bay. Guest arrival experience has been carefully choreographed to celebrate the transition from the past to present as one steps into the Art Deco-style Clifford Pier (a former landing point built in 1933 for Singapore's early settlers) before journeying through the sleek modern building with elegantly appointed spaces.

Nestled in the vibrant financial, arts and cultural precinct, both hotels are ideal luxurious bases from which to rediscover all the best that the Lion City has to offer, including Boat Quay and Clarke Quay, as well as cultural centres Chinatown, Victoria Theatre and Concert Hall, National Gallery Singapore, Singapore Art Museum, Asian Civilisations Museum and Esplanade–Theatres on the Bay.

“We are delighted that we’ll finally be able to welcome guests from Hong Kong back to Singapore in style and look forward to delighting them with a suite of specially curated Fullerton Experiences including sustainable Fullerton Farm tours, immersive heritage walks, heritage cooking workshops, and vintage sidecar tours of Singapore’s Civic District,” said Cavaliere Giovanni Viterale, General Manager of The Fullerton Hotels & Resorts and a former Hong Kong hotelier before his move to Singapore.

“We look forward to rolling out the red carpet for our Hong Kong guests from 26 May 2021,” he added.
