

Waiter/Waitress within F&B (Bistro, Wine Bar and Le Garden)

Do you want to work in Stockholm's probably most inviting and personal boutique hotel?
Are you a person who likes challenges and strives to be unique and not like everyone else?

At one of Stockholm's most central addresses, a stone's throw from Stureplan, there is a vibrant meeting place. From 1st of February 2019, the city's new boutique hotel The Sparrow, Stockholmers and visiting visitors offer an intimate stay with a pulse and a break behind their respective entrances. Behind the investment is Grand Group, which with the opening of The Sparrow Hotel is establishing itself outside Blasieholmen. Grand Group already owns Grand Hôtel Stockholm and Lydmar Hotel. In the hotel, team Mathias Dahlgren runs a French bistro and wine bar with world-class food and wine.

We are now looking for serving staff for our French bistro and wine bar run by team Mathias Dahlgren. There is a desire to deliver a fantastic experience for our guests and a strong interest in food and drink. We are looking for you who love to serve and work in service with a positive attitude and who enjoy working in teams. We are looking for you who have a few years of experience in the profession. Your personal qualities are something we value very highly.

We take it for granted that you love to provide service and quality and have a personal host. If you are also a charming and likeable person with a sense of what our guests want before they even know it themselves: then this is the job for you! Do you want to be a big part of making sure that we create memorable moments for our guests and create Sparrow moments that only we can - then apply today!

The position/services are a temporary part-time employment. The working hours are according to a rolling schedule/shift, and we apply 6 months probationary employment. Access and salary according to agreement, we follow the collective agreement.

Do you want to know more or apply directly to F&B Manager, Josefine Ström: josefine.strom@mdghs.com

A warm welcome to us at the Sparrow Hotel and The Sparrow Winebar and Bistro where we create Sparrow moments together!
